

SOCIETY

In order to prevent impositions and embarrasments, the Tribune requests that persons leaving social notices or engagements for publication, leave with them names through which the source of the matter may be traced if the matter is called in question.

Society seems to have taken on a new lease of life for June is opening with many number of really smart events, to say nothing of the marriages. It is noticeable that greater attention to detail is given at the current afternoon affairs than ever before, and in some cases the afternoon teas are of quite an elaborate description.

Mrs. Leroy Dinwoody entertained at a charming luncheon Thursday, complimentary to Mrs. Walter Stone.

Miss Kirkpatrick will be hostess at a bridge tea Friday.

Mrs. Russell C. Woodruff will entertain Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reid have asked friends to join in an informal tea Sunday evening in commemoration of their wedding.

Mrs. S. V. Derrah has returned from a visit of several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Avery Turner, in Amarillo, Texas. Her mother, Mrs. Ten Eyck, who has made her home in Salt Lake City for the past year, and who accompanied Mrs. Turner to Texas, will remain with Mrs. Turner for the summer.

Mrs. Corey Albritton pleasantly entertained a few old friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. Bonnemont, on South Temple street.

One of the events of this afternoon will be the bridge affair to be given by Mrs. Herman at her home at 1000 South Temple street, the members of the Crystal club to be the honor guests.

The Misses Marjorie Brooks and Theresa Godbe were the complimented guests at a handkerchief shower given Thursday afternoon by the Misses Kate and Bess Shetler. The home was prettily decorated with spring flowers. Later in the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served.

One of the weddings of Thursday morning was that of Miss Lucille Patten and A. J. Wilhelms. A wedding reception for relatives and friends was held from 4 to 6 o'clock. The decorations were elaborately carried out in roses.

The monthly birthday luncheon for the girls of the Y. W. C. A. was held at their room in the Brooks Arcade Thursday noon with Mrs. W. R. Butler as hostess.

One of the pleasant affairs of Thursday afternoon was the entertainment given by Mrs. Thomas Nipper for the members of the Immanuel Baptist church at her home on South Temple street. The home was attractive with many flowers.

Mrs. George Brown delightfully entertained at a luncheon Thursday afternoon the guests of the James B. McKean W. R. C. The decorations being in spring flowers.

Mrs. E. E. Work of Cincinnati, O., formerly Miss Viola Godbe of this city, will arrive Saturday to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Godbe, during the summer.

The Misses Grace Sullivan, '08, Edna Cammille and Ethel Bixby, '09, of St. Mary's Academy Alumnae association will entertain in the hall of the college for the graduating class of this year at a dancing party at the Knights of Columbus hall Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. D. Sullivan returned Monday afternoon after a two months' trip through the northwest.

One of the pretty weddings of Thursday evening was that of Miss Virginia Smith and Harry E. Carpenter, which took place at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Dumbear avenue. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss in every detail.

Winifred Smith, and the groom by J. E. Cawley, the ceremony being performed by Elder Richard W. Young. After the ceremony a reception was held from 8 to 11 o'clock. The parlor was profusely decorated with white roses and ferns, and the dining room with pink and white sweet peas. On the dining table was a large chuney lace piece with a cut glass bowl of pink sweet peas. The bride was beautifully attired in white crepe de chine and carried white bride's roses, and the maid of honor wore a pale pink mesaline and carried a large bouquet of pink sweet peas. The young couple will be at home to their friends after June 20.

One of the pleasant affairs of Thursday evening was the heart party given by Miss Myrtle Jack complimentary to Miss Viola Denhalter, whose wedding takes place Thursday, June 9. Seven tables of hearts were played, for which prizes were awarded to the guest of honor and the winner of the game. The home was prettily decorated with strings of red hearts, the electric lights were shaded in red and baskets of red roses were suspended from the chandelier. The heart idea was carried out in the menu and tally cards. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by the Misses Mignon Denhalter and Rae Campbell.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church, delightfully entertained at a parcel shower at the home of Mrs. Alcott on South Main street. The home was attractive with a profusion of flowers, the parlors in syntax and by the dining room in red roses, a large chuney lace cover adorning the table with a cut glass vase of red roses. The refreshments were served about seven-fifty calling during the afternoon. Music was enjoyed, the Misses Kate and Bess Shetler, Miss Hilda Gresson, Miss Edith Gabryn, Miss Gail Mills, Mrs. Harry Robinson and Ned Williams taking part.

Mrs. R. S. North and sister, Miss Mary L. Carroll, left for Portland, Ore., Wednesday evening, where they will spend several weeks visiting their aunt, Mrs. Norah Jennings Carroll, and friends on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Fallas and son, Claude, of 825 East Seventh South street, will leave Saturday for an eastern trip, including Detroit and Chicago.

Mrs. G. W. Ray of 111 East South Temple street delightfully entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner Thursday evening, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. George Wisnimer and the latter's guests, Mrs. Gertrude Slagg and Miss Edna Hucks of Newburg, Mo. The table was very prettily decorated and a dainty menu was served.

Miss Hilda Gresson will entertain Friday afternoon in honor of the Forrest Martin, one of the brides of June.

The Misses Kendall will entertain on Saturday in honor of Miss Preale Clark.

Miss Deane Alder will entertain Monday evening at a card party.

An interesting meeting of the missionary circle of the Immanuel Baptist church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. J. Sippert. Several papers were read by Mrs. V. R. Cutler and Mrs. Haukwaert. It was a tea meeting and assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Marcel, Harrison, Mrs. Wathman, Mrs. Monheim and the Misses Fitzgerald and Ballantyne.

ACCEPT FINAL REPORT ON WOMEN'S BUILDING

The trustees of the Agricultural college in Governor Spry's office Thursday afternoon, received and accepted the final report on the new women's building at the college, costing $28,000 and considered one of the best of its kind in the west.

It was decided to construct a new power plant for the college at once, so that it may be ready for use by the beginning of the next school year. Bids will be asked for at once and when the plant is completed there will be sufficient power for all purposes at the institution. The college has filed on the entire flow of the Logan river below the plant of the Telluride Power company and has plenty of water for power purposes.

The trustees plan to do much extension work the coming year in connection with the high schools. It is planned to organize trains on the three railroads in this city to use in the extension work.

New Incorporations

The Knight Power company of Provo filed a copy of its articles of incorporation with the secretary of state Thursday. The capitalization is $2,000,000, divided into shares of the par value of $200 each. Jesse Knight is president; R. E. Allen, vice president; secretary, J. W. Knight, W. Lester Maugham, M. A. Smith, F. M. Lyman, Jr., John P. Calhoun, M. M. Miller and B. B. Britton are the directors. The company takes over as payment for $250,000 of its capital stock 160 acres of land in Utah county, with a power plant and transmission lines, water rights in Snake creek, Wasatch county, water rights in the Weber river in Morgan and Summit counties.

An amendment to the articles of incorporation of the E. W. Thatcher company of Logan was filed with the secretary of state, by which the name is changed to the Thatcher Clothing company.

The Homer Mining and Manufacturing company of this city filed an amendment to its articles of incorporation with the county clerk, by which the name is changed to the Homer Paint Manufacturing company.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF BANKERS' ASSOCIATION

The second annual convention of the Utah Bankers' association will be held at Carnegie hall, Salt Lake City, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 22 and 23. It is expected that the convention will be largely attended and addresses will be delivered by the foremost bankers of the state.

The address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Ogden at the conclusion of the convention, the visiting bankers will be given a trolley ride about the city by the Ogden bankers.
